October 10th – Methodist Men Go Policeical – Sheriff Dan McEathron will present the program to the United Methodist Men at our regular second Monday dinner meeting at 6:00 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall. In view of the negative publicity around the country, and the indication we have a local drug problem, he will give us the true background, and also present us what's happening at the new regional prison. He'll bring us up to date on the criminal and economic environment in our community, and what we can do to help keep our country safe. Ladies are invited too, to hear this important program – and also for the delicious feast proceeding it!

Fall is Here-It's UMW Bazaar Time!! October 14th from 3-7pm & October 15th from 10am-3pm. Come out and help the UMW raise funds to support our church's mission work. A wide array of food and crafts made by the women of the UMW will be available including: homemade breads, pies, cakes, cookies, jams, pickles, sharp cheddar cheese cut from the wheel, jewelry, one of a kind crafts and needlework, children's table, and silent auction. A ham dinner will be served on Friday Night and a soup lunch on Saturday. We will have the popular Apple Dumplings made in our church kitchen-get yours before they sell out. What can you do to help? Bake a pie, cake, cookies, or bread to sell in the "Pantry" -- Have a jar of two of homemade jams or pickles you can share? -- Donate gently used jewelry. -- Heirlooms, antiques, one-of-a-kind items, donate to the Silent Auction. -- Gift certificates for services and gift baskets also do well in the auction. Volunteer you're time...like to cook? Serve? Assist in selling items? Talk to any UMW member.
